

Sound

Defective (Wrinkled)

Description

Defective seed – (An overall Description):

Any damage to the seed coat or kernel that results in changes from the predominating class (determined by the photographic charts).

Wrinkled:

Damage sustained from weather events that creates wrinkles in any direction over the seed coat. Tested on sample as presented.